After Easter Reading List

Lent and Easter Sunday are over. Should you go back to old habits of watching mindless TV shows or checking endless social media feeds? Instead, how about reading something good for your soul, or using your smart phone and the Internet for the purposes for which God inspired them? Did you know that you can borrow and download hundreds of books and movies that will help you increase your understanding of the Catholic faith from Baltimore's own Enoch Pratt Free Library? Did you know that you can reserve books on-line and pick them up at the branch library most convenient for you?

Pratt eCard Registration

Libby App Download Info

Hoopla Digital

First, you need an Enoch Pratt Library card. If you don't have one, you can register on-line for a Pratt eCard using the QR code to the left and have instant access eBooks, audio books, movies, and other media. Second, you will need to download the Libby and Hoopla Digital apps from the Apple App Store or Google Play for Android using the QR codes to the left.

With your Pratt Library card or eCard you can request these and other books at your local branch library, or download the books from either Libby or Hoopla if available digitally. Can't find the book you want in the Pratt Library system? Use the Marina interlibrary loan system to borrow books from across the state and nation.

Baltimore City residents who are confined to their homes can request Pratt Library materials to be sent to them via mail by calling (410) 396-5325 to complete the application process.
