On Sunday, December 8, 2024, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, at 4:00 pm, at St. Casimir Church, 1036 S. Kenwood Avenue, Bach in Baltimore will present a program that includes excerpts from Handel's Messiah, the first cantata of the Bach Christmas Oratorio, Mozart's Et incarnates est from Mass in C minor, Arno Pärt's Magnificat, and several favorite Christmas Carols (with the audience invited to join in) arranged for orchestra, organ, choir and descant.

Single concert tickets will go on sale in early July 2024 at BachinBaltimore.org, but you can purchase early-bird season passes (all 12 concerts) or mini-passes (any 3 concerts) now.
